THE TORONTO FLOWER AND GARDEN FESTIVAL

Canada Blooms: The Toronto Flower and Garden Festival proudly presents “Flower Power”. Founded in 1997 by The Garden Club of Toronto and Landscape Ontario, Canada Blooms invites you to experience this year’s event featuring everything that is groovy and growing in the gardening world. It all takes place at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre South Building, March 12-16 2008. Experience the uplifting power of flowers right in the heart of Toronto.

New this year, theme days!

Our education seminars have been reorganized into themes that best reflect your interests!

Wednesday March 12 is Communities in Bloom and Garden Travel Day

Thursday March 13 is Garden Life Day

Friday March 14 is Garden Design Day

Saturday March 15 is Gardening Green Day

Sunday March 16 is City of Toronto Day

With over 100 demonstrations, lectures and workshops you will gain a wealth of knowledge which you will be itching to apply in your own back yard. Or, you could start with the six acres of fully landscaped gardens; the fragrance and colours will spark your imagination. Come and discover what plant material has been used in the many top notch gardens.

The Garden Club of Toronto hosts this country’s largest standard judged flower show. Be sure to check out Aquarius, Tye-Dye, and The Twist, just few of the many categories of amazing floral creativity. Members often showcase their knowledge and creativity by entering several different categories.

I can’t think of a better way to welcome another spring in the city than to spend it at Canada Blooms. Don’t delay, order your tickets now! Avoid the Toronto rush hour and bring your groups in the late afternoon.
